Are you Ready to Dance in 2020?

MENTOR: Rhode Island kicks off Annual Campaign

This month, MENTOR: Rhode Island launched its 2020 annual campaign featuring a touching story from Providence Police Commander Thomas Verdi and his mentee, Rommy. Their story was featured at the campaign kickoff and on ABC6. See their story here.

Attleboro Mentor Appreciation

Attleboro Community Academy celebrated a Mentor Appreciation Dinner and MENTOR: Rhode Island's own Marc Mainville was honored with a Mentor Advocate Award. Marc was instrumental in getting the mentor program started through technical assistance provided through the National Mentoring Resource Center. Congratulations, Marc!

Mentoring events in January

MENTOR: Rhode Island was busy this January. We started with our Frozen Clam Dip and Obstacle Course that raised over $14,000! We welcomed mentors from around the state to the Gamm Theatre as a way to say thank you for their commitment. Mentor Mondays at Starbucks continued with information (and free samples!)

We hope your 2020 is off to a great start!

With gratitude for all you do,

Jo-Ann and your MENTOR RI Team:

Jana, Pamela, Marc, Nichole, Christopher, Cathy, and Alyssa
